

Historic Place in Texas to Be Visited
To-Day.

To-Day.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 6.—The Presidential party arrived here this morning and was cordially welcomed by all who could get away from bed. The day will be largely spent in sight-seeing. President McKinley has expressed a desire to visit the old Spanish missions and the Alamo, and they will be the first objects visited.

The visit to Mission San Antonio de Valero, better known as the Alamo, yesterday was fraught with much interest. The President's party had to wait until the Copeland physicians are better qualified to treat you than any other physician.

Mistakes may at times have occurred. No human testimony could be absolutely perfect. You can find mistakes in the testimony of the four Evangelists, but they must have been pretty good men, and the cultured world still believes their words to be true. The fact that the testimony has faults is one thing that proves that it is truthful.

You haven't read this testimony?

You may be suffering indescribable agony from having "There is no God."

"Is there naught?"
"Are you cooive?"
"Are you cooive?"
"Do you belch up gas?"
"Have you waterbrash?"
"Are your tongue loose?"
"Do you hawk and spit?"
"Is there pain after eating?"
"Are you nervous and weak?"
"Do you have acid eructations?"
"Do you have flatulencies?"
"Do you have up-as-a-balloon?"

At New Orleans Mrs. M. Kniley was sent to be interviewed for the first time since she became mistress of the White House. "Do you know Major McKinley?" she asked.

"Ah, no one can know him, because to appreciate him one must know him as I do. And I am not speaking of Major McKinley as the President. I am speaking of him as my husband. If any one could know what it is to have a man like him, it is I."

"You may be losing your hearing," these columns for years have fairly groaned with the abundance of proof given in the support of the treatment that gives back the hearing to dead ears.

You haven't taken the trouble to write and investigate these cures, or call upon

CAR TROUBLES.

You have read of the marvellous results under the Copeland Discovery. Every one seems to say the people who say they were deaf and now hear.

and for twenty-five years, seldom a day well, and yet never a word of unkindness to any of my family. I am just the same, I thought, kind gentleman I knew when first he came and caught my hand.

"Now, I know I am his wife, and it is my privilege, pleasure to say this not because he is the President and the father of my husband."

"I wish that I could have seen him yesterday. I love to see him among the people. He seeks to be so faithfully. But I read his speeches this and testify. No, you took Dame Rumor, and I carry. 'Prejudice, or the Lord knows what, and to you I say, 'It's advertising,' and have gone on and suffered and been a burden to your family, or grown deaf and lost your means of livelihood, or fallen into Consumption, perhaps, and a countless number of others that well from loving eyes.

"You haven't read the testimony: we are going to read it just the same. We will not burden you with the pictures and illustrations of cured patients. We give them their names. The failures. The morning. "I can't hear his speeches," he said, "with this noise." He told him as I should tell you, no good, so patient. He gives me all the time he can; he never forgets me, no matter how busy he is. But when he has some quiet or public life, I did not want him to run a campaign. He would have done enough for the country, and now I know that he has done enough, and wishes to return home. He will settle down quietly and peacefully.

to-day Orange, N. J., was without water, owing to the breaking of the 36-inch water main running from the pumping station at Milburn. The break occurred near the Yvonne Hotel, and the water ran into the road. The trucks were flooded and traffic was delayed. There was no fire during the stoppage of the water. By noon to-day the break had been repaired and the water was flowing again.

The Minister's Wife Was Right.

When a baby's life can be saved by food it is worth while knowing something of that food.

A minister's wife, name given below, writes: "I do not exaggerate in the least when I say that I have never yet seen a picture of the living babes of India that looked as bad as our baby did. The skin was drawn as tightly as possible over her little frame, and was almost black. Her little form was so shrunken that it was pitiable to look at. Her bright eyes only showed that she was alive.

"She was starving to death, for everything she ate was immediately

"She would not drink milk unless I had Grape-Nuts Food in it thereafter."

"Afterwards she began to show marks of improvement, then she improved very rapidly. When we began feeding her Grape-Nuts she weighed about 10 pounds; now she weighs over 30, and is almost as broad as she is long."

"Our friends all think it a miracle that she recovered. While I am writing this my two other girls have just come up, begunk for some Grape-Nuts and cream."

"We naturally believe in Grape-Nuts, for it has saved the life of our baby."
